

My family is not interested in having telemarketers calling us all hours of the day and evening. Leave Wisconsin's law in effect. We would be interested in having a more stringent law, not a more lenient one.